A Complete Becord of Society Events. Together With the Coming and Going of the Capital City Denisene.

The Society column of the Sunday Sentinel is a special feature, and an effort is made with each dition to furnish such a column as will be of interest to all the readers of the Sentinel. We hope the friends of the Sentinel will still furnish us with matter for this department, and assure them that all such items are used if practicable. In preparing society items, please use but one side of the paper. All items for this column must be signed by the author, not for publication, but for our own protection.

A master mechanic said yesterday that railroad companies were much more cautious now than in former years, and this was the reason so lew great railroad accidents occurred. Breaks in the track watched for more closely than ever before, and bridges that are thought to be unsafe are tested at certain periods. "There was a time," said he, "when railroad companies were very reckless. I have ridden over some very tough roads here in Indiana. On some of the lines toe track was so bad that one wasn't sure whether the car was running on the rails or the cross-ties. Nowadays a company that can not boast of an all-steel route, road bed bed well ballasted and passenger coach of the latest pattern, cuts no figure at all in the race for business. The commonest presenger coach of to-day is a palace as compared with those of a few years ago. Even freight cars have been greatly improved in the past ten years, and engines as well. We are advancing rapidly, without a doubt."

COMMERCIAL.

Dry goods have been fairly active during the week, with quite a number of sales, but generally of smail dimensions. Groceries have had a tolerably fair demand during the week, which gradually increased to the close. Prices remain firm. There is a lack of activity in domestic dried fruits, and, excepting evaporated apples, the several lines are weak. Fish are quiet and not so firm. Dairy products remain dull and weak. Eggs and poultry remain unchanged.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

Produce Markets.

CHICAGO, May 2.- The war feeing on 'Change appeared to have very generally collapsed or at least was very sensibly lessened at the opening of trading, as was illustrated in the extreme desire of some of the purchasers of the two preceding days to unload. The advance in consols and Russian securities emphasized this feeling. The lowest prices, however, were current early in the session and after that a strong feeling prevailed on all of the cereals and the closing was well up to the closing quotations of yesterday. In wheat the crop news continues unsatisfactory, which fact contributed toward sustaining the market, though but little attention has been paid to the subject in the face of the war news. Receipts continue, and another large decrease in the visible supply is counted upon. The market closed about se under yesterday, though at one time it was ic lower. Corn was weak early, but recovered all of the decline and closed higher than yesterday, May options showing the greatest strength. Oats ruled steady, with a fair demand. Provisions Oats ruled steady, with a fair demand. Provisions generally were weak and lower. Flour quiet and unchanged. Wheat—Fairly active and feeling unsettled owing to the pacific tenor of the cable news.
